III. ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND SYSTEM

1. Accounting system

The Company applies the Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Accounting Policy for Enterprises issued in accordance with Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated December 22, 2014 and circulars guiding the implementation of accounting standards of the Ministry of Finance in preparing and presenting the Financial statements.

Statement of the compliance with the accounting standards and system

General Director has ensured that it has complied with the requirements of the Vietnamese accounting standards, Vietnamese Business Accounting System was issued in accordance with Circular No. 200/2014/ TT-BTC dated December 22, 2014 as well as circulars guiding the implementation of the Ministry of Finance's accounting standards in the preparation of financial statements.

IV. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of financial statement

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting (except for information related to cash flows).

2. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash and indefinite term deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a grace period of no more than 03 months from the date of investment and readily convertible into known amounts of cash and there is no risk of being converted into cash at the time of reporting.

3. Financial investments

Held-to-maturity investments

Investments are classified as held to maturity when the Company has the intention and ability to hold to maturity. Held-to-maturity investments are term deposits held to maturity date for the purpose of earning interest periodically.

Held-to-maturity investments are initially recognized at cost. After initial recognition, these investments are recognized at revaluable amounts. Interest income from held-to-maturity investments after the acquisition date is recognized in the statement of income on an accrual basis. Interest before corporate income tax is charged to the cost of acquisition at the date of acquisition.

When there is evidence that a part or all of an investment can not be reversed and the amount of loss is determined reliably, the loss is recognized in the financial expense during the period and direct deduction of investment value.

Investments in associates

Associates are entities in which the Company has significant influence but not control over financial and operating policies. Significant influence is expressed in the right to participate in making decisions on the financial policies and operations of the investee enterprise but not control these policies.

Initial recognition

Investments in associates are initially recognized at cost, including acquisition or capital contribution plus any directly attributable costs of investing. In case of investment with non-monetary assets, the cost of the investment is recognized at the fair value of the non-monetary asset at the time of arising.

Address: 390 Nguyen Cong Tru, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the financial reporting period ending December 31, 2025

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

Dividends and profits from periods prior to the investment being purchased are accounted for as a reduction in the value of the investment itself. Dividends and profits from periods after the investment is purchased are recognized as revenue. When dividends are received in shares, the Company only tracks the number of additional shares, not recording the value of the shares received.

Provision for losses on investments in associates

Provision for losses on investments in associates is made when the associate suffers a loss, with the provision equal to the difference between the actual investment capital of the parties in the associate and the actual equity multiplied by the Company's actual contributed charter capital ownership ratio in the associates. If associates are parties to the Consolidated financial statements, the basis for determining the loss provision is the Consolidated financial statements.

Increases and decreases to the allowance for impairment losses on investments in subsidiaries, associates that are required to be completed at the end of accounting period are recognized in financial expenses.

Investments in equity instruments of other entities

Investing in capital instruments of other entities reflects capital tool investments but the Company has no control, co-control or significant influence on the investee.

Investments in equity instruments of other entities are initially recognized at cost, including acquisition or disposal, plus any directly attributable costs of investing activities. Dividends and profits from periods prior to the investment being purchased are accounted for as a reduction in the value of the investment itself. Dividends and profits from periods after the investment is purchased are recognized as revenue. When dividends are received in shares, the Company only tracks the number of additional shares, not recording the value of the shares received.

Provision for losses on investments in other equity instruments is as follows:

- The investment in listed shares or the fair value of the investment is determined reliably, the provision is made based on the market value of the shares.
- For an undetermined fair value at the reporting date, provision is made on the basis of the invested party's loss at the difference between the actual investment capital of the owners and the owner's equity at the end of the accounting period multiplied by the ratio of the Company's charter capital to the total contributed charter capital at other entities.

Increases and decreases in the provision for losses on investments in equity instruments of other entities that are required to make a provision at the end of accounting period are recognized in financial expenses.

4. Receivables

The debts receivables are presented at book value less provision for doubtful debts.

The classification of receivables is receivable from customers, internal receivables and other receivables are carried out on the following principles:

- Receivables from customers reflect trade receivables arising from a buying and selling transaction between the Company and the buyer, which is an independent entity of the Company, including receivables from the export sales entrusted to another unit.
- Other receivables reflect non-commercial receivables, not related to buying and selling transactions.

Address: 390 Nguyen Cong Tru, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

Provision for doubtful debts is made for each doubtful debt based on the age of overdue debts after offsetting against payable debts (if any) or the expected level of loss that may occur, specifically as follows:

- For overdue receivables:
 - 30% of value of receivable debts overdue from 6 months to less than 1 year.
 - 50% of value for debts overdue from 1 years to under 2 years.
 - 70% of value for debts overdue from 2 years to under 3 years.
 - 100% of values for receivables that are overdue for 3 years or more.
- For receivables that are not yet overdue but are difficult to recover: based on the expected loss level to make provision.

Increases and decreases to the provision for doubtful debts required to be made at the end of accounting period are included in the cost of enterprise management.

5. Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Cost of inventories is determined as follows:

- Materials and goods: including purchase cost and other directly related costs incurred in order to obtain inventories at the current location and status.
- Unfinished production and business expenses: including the cost of main materials, labor costs and other directly related costs.
- Finished products: including raw materials costs, direct labor and directly related general production costs allocated based on the level of normal operation;

Stock-out prices are calculated using the weighted average method and accounted for using the perpetual inventory method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventories in the ordinary production and business period minus the estimated costs to complete and the estimated costs necessary for their sale.

Provision for devaluation of inventories is made for each item of inventories whose original cost is greater than the net realizable value. For unfinished services, the provision for discount is calculated for each type of service at a separate price. Increases and decreases to the provision balance as at the end of the accounting period are recognized in cost of goods sold.

6. Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses include the actually incurred costs related to the results of business activities of many accounting periods. The Company's prepaid expenses mainly consist of tools, equipment, asset repair costs and compensation costs. These prepaid expenses are amortized over the period of the prepayment or the period in which economic benefits are generated from these expenses.

Tools and supplies

Tools already in use are allocated to expenses on a straight-line basis with a allocation period not exceeding 01 years.

Property repair expenses

Property repair expenses are amortized to expenses on a straight-line basis with amortization period not exceeding 03 years.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

When an investment property is derecognised, its cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, and any gain or loss resulting from such investment is included in the income or expense for the period.

Investment real estate are houses used for rental purposes and are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives of 25-55 years.

11. Payables and accrued expenses

Payables and accrued expenses are recognized for the amount payable in the future relating to the goods and services received. Expenses payable are recognized based on the estimated estimates of the amount payable.

The classification of accounts payable is payable to suppliers, accrued expenses and other payables are made according to the following principles:

- Payables to suppliers reflect trade payables arising from purchases of goods, services, assets, and suppliers that are independent of the Company.
- Accrued expenses reflect amounts payable for goods or services received from the supplier or provided to the buyer but not paid due to lack of invoices or incomplete accounting records and documents and payables to employees for leave pay, production and business expenses must be made in advance.
- Other payables reflect payables that are non-commercial, not related to the purchase, sale and supply of goods and services.

The payables and accrued expenses are classified as short-term and long-term in the Balance Sheet based on the remaining maturities at the end of the accounting period.

12. Owner's Equity

Owners' equity is recorded according to the actual capital contributed by the shareholders

13. Profit distribution

Profit after corporate income tax is distributed to the shareholders after the appropriation of funds has been made in accordance with the Company's Charter as well as the provisions of the law and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The distribution of profits to the shareholders is considered non-monetary items that are included in the undistributed earnings after tax that may affect cash flows and the ability to pay dividend such as interest on revaluation of assets contributing capital, interest from reassessment of monetary items, financial instruments and other non-monetary items.

Dividends are recorded as liabilities when approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

14. Recognition of revenue and income

Revenue is recognized

Revenue is recognized when meeting the following conditions:

- The Company has transferred most of the risks and rewards associated with ownership of the goods and products to the buyer.
- The Company no longer retains management of goods as the owner or control of goods:
- The revenue can be measured reliably. When a Contract stipulates that a buyer is entitled to return products or goods as purchased under specific conditions, the enterprise can only record the revenue when those specific conditions no longer exist and the buyer cannot return products or goods (except where the customer reserves the right to return goods in exchange for other goods or services).

Address: 390 Nguyen Cong Tru, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the financial reporting period ending December 31, 2025

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

- The Company has obtained or will obtain economic benefits from the sales;
- Determine the costs associated with the sale.

Revenue from the provision of services

Revenue from the provision of services is recognized at the same time as satisfying the following conditions:

- The revenue can be measured reliably. When the contract stipulates that the buyer is entitled to return the purchased service under specific conditions, the revenue is recognized only when those specific conditions no longer exist and the buyer is not entitled to return the service provided.
- The Company has or will receive economic benefits from that transaction.
- Identify the part of the work completed at the time of reporting.
- Determine the costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction.

Where services are performed over several periods, the revenues recognized during the period are based on the results of the work completed on the balance sheet date.

Revenue from operating leases

Revenue from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Prepaid rentals of multiple periods are allocated into revenue in accordance with the lease period.

Interest

Interest is recognized on the basis of the real time and interest rates periodically.

Dividends and profits are divided

Dividends and distributed profit are recognized when the Company is entitled to receive dividends or profit from the capital contribution. When dividends are received in shares, the Company only tracks the number of additional shares, not recording the value of the shares received.

15. Expenses

Expenses are economic benefits that are recognized at the time of the transaction, or when there is room for doubt in the future regardless of whether the expenses are paid or not.

The expenses and revenues generated by it must be recognized at the same time as appropriate. Where the relevant principle conflicts with the prudence principle, the cost is recognized based on the nature and provisions of the accounting standards to ensure fair and reasonable reflection of the transaction.

16. Corporate income tax

Corporate income tax expenses include current income tax and deferred income tax.

Current income tax

Current income tax is a tax calculated based on taxable income. Taxable income is different from the accounting profit due to the adjustment of temporary differences between tax and accounting, non-deductible expenses as well as adjustment of non-taxable incomes and moved losses.

Deferred income tax

Refundable income tax is the corporate income tax payable or refundable on the temporary difference between the carrying amount of an asset and a liability for financial reporting purposes and the base for calculating income tax. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which these deductible temporary differences can be utilized.

Address: 390 Nguyen Cong Tru, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The carrying amount of the deferred income tax asset is reviewed on the ending date of fiscal period and will be reduced to the extent that it is probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to all or part of the deferred tax asset is used Deferred corporate income tax assets not yet recognized previously are reclassified at the end of fiscal year and are recognized if it is probable that sufficient taxable profits to be able to utilize unrecognized deferred tax assets.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the liability is settled or the liability is settled on the tax rates based on the effective tax rates applicable at the end of fiscal period. Deferred income tax is recognized in the statement of income and only directly recorded in equity when that tax relates to items that are directly credited to equity.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when:

- The Company has the legal right to offset current income tax assets with current income tax payable; and
- The deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relating to corporate income tax are managed by the same tax authority:
 - For the same taxable entity; or
 - The Company intends to pay its current income tax liabilities and current income tax assets on a net basis or to recover assets at the same time as the payment of liabilities in future periods when significant amounts are due of deferred income tax liabilities or deferred tax assets are paid or recovered.

17. Related parties

Parties are considered to be related if they are capable of controlling or significant influence over the other party in making decisions about financial and operating policies. Parties are also considered to be related if they are subject to common control or generally significant influence.

In considering the relationship of related parties, the nature of the relationship is more focused than on the legal form.

18. Segment report

The business department is a part that can be separately identified to participate in the production or supply of products or services and has different risks and economic benefits than other business divisions.

A geographic area is a part that can be separately identified involved in the production or supply of products or services within a specific economic environment and with economic risks and benefits. different from business divisions in other economic environments.
